LOCATION

Workington is the main catchment town for West Cumbria with convenient transport links to the city of Carlisle approximately 30 miles north and the town of Whitehaven approximately 5 miles south. The lake district towns of Keswick, Windermere and Ambleside are less than one hour's drive east. 41 Washington Street is positioned in the centre of Workington and is prominently located on a busy arterial route. Surrounding buildings are a mix of commercial and residential. Permit holder and disc zone parking is available nearby.

Nearby operators include TK Maxx, The Entertainer, The Royal British Legion Club, Marks & Spencer, Next, and a number of private independent operators for various commercial uses. Various bars are positioned close by on Market Place, which effectively wraps around the back of Washington Street.

DESCRIPTION

41 Washington Street is an end of terrace, three storey building made up of traditional block construction under a pitched slate roof. The building has been extended to the rear. Internally, the ground floor provides a rectangular shaped large open plan area including bar, cellar, male, female and disabled WCs and storage to the rear. The first floor provides storage areas, commercial kitchen, staff office, WCs and a function room. The second floor is a one-bedroom flat featuring a living room, kitchen, bathroom and store. There is a courtyard to the rear of the property.

The building could easily be converted to provide more residential units, subject to planning. Benefitting from multiple accesses, side lane, DDA accessibility and a regular shaped floor plate to work with.
