LOCATION

Carlisle is the chief commercial and administrative centre for Cumbria with a resident population of circa 90,000 and a much wider catchment in excess of 150,000. The subject property is located close to the city centre in the suburb, Denton Holme. The unit benefits from a main street position and nearby occupiers include The Co-op, Coral, Greggs, various hot food takeaways, private independent retailers and Andersons Kitchens.

The property is shown outlined red on the attached Plan extract.

DESCRIPTION

111-113 Denton Street is a mid-terraced two storey building constructed of traditional brick under a pitched slate roof, arranged in two parts, being a ground floor commercial unit, formerly occupied by the Cumberland Building Society, with first floor accommodation fitted out as offices, which would also be suitable for conversion to residential, subject to planning.

Internally, the ground floor is largely open plan and is currently fitted out with a couple of private offices, large banking counter, staff kitchen and WC. The first floor is two good sized rooms with WC and kitchen. This space could become a one bed flat. A self contained private staircase allows for access to these areas.

ACCOMMODATION/AREAS

Ground Floor	112.27 sq m	(1,208 sq ft)
First Floor	36.76 sq m	( 396 sq ft)

SERVICES

Mains electricity, water and a connection to the public sewer are laid on to the property. At present, there are separate meters for the electric to both the ground floor and first floor, due to the installation of an electricity submeter to the first floor.
