LOCATION

Cockermouth is a busy market town and benefits from a convenient position between The Lake District and the west Cumbrian town of Workington. The town is easily accessible by road from all directions in the county.

The two main high streets of Main Street and Station Street are made up of a mixture of national operators including Greggs, Boots, Costa, Dominos and One Stop, but also strong independent traders including Strolling For Shoes, Cumberland Building Society and Lindsay Butchers have a presence, and have done for many years now.

DESCRIPTION

The property sale comprises a long leasehold self contained ground floor only mid-terraced building of traditional construction under a residential flat which is held under separate ownership. The exterior of the property is a large glazed window frontage, with personnel access door to Station Road.

The building provides a ground floor retail unit with self-contained WC and store room. The layout is rectangular in configuration, and would be suitable for a range of commercial operators.
